Since establishment, AXIMER CERAMIC has succeeded to level up extensive skills and executive cutting-knowledge in providing the industry and capital owners with ceramic materials and furniture including tiles and porcelain slabs.

Having ability to supply items for opulent palaces, residential and commercial complexes like malls, towers etc., we are now highly proactive in the field of building material innovation, creative production, spatial design, graphics, supervision and beyond. Technology-led approach of us through global trends makes Aximer able to take part in practical and incorporate participations.

The Message of CEO

In the dynamic, changing, risky and competitive playground of today's business environment, we cannot hope that customer satisfaction, by the old and traditional measures and means, could be obviated; a smart organization, in this regard, is solely able to satisfy the customers by offering them innovative products. That is the path of success—sort of.

AXIMER ceramic always believes customer satisfaction with product quality plays a very momentous role in the long-term.

Since this company focuses on offering ceramic products with the new technologies, it has always tried to provide different and latest definitions when it comes to comparison with ordinary tiles.

Furthermore, the matter of time, out pre- and post-sale services, and the treatment by the personnel must be considered at the top of the list; not only has it been played the role of distinguishing feature of this company in the market, it has also enabled AXIMER to provide customers with products in a routine basis of timely delivery.

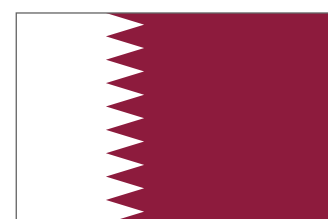

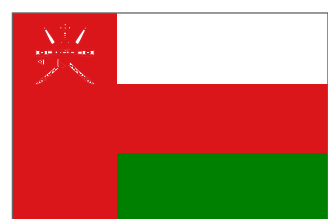

The Journey of Us

Voyaging upon a crew of deft experts, Aximer, a Dubai based company have been indissolubly aimed at satisfying its sense of responsibility to level up the customers' taste-knowledge; the mission is not to get along with the existing stereotypes, vice versa, it is to incarnate what is spectacular for the rest of the century. As a professional supplier in providing the best building materials enticing people by the design and quality across the UAE, Aximer has entered the competition field of construction, trading and industry companies since 2021—The brand is progressively hustling to expand its ventures' scope in the GCC through outstretching its product portfolio.

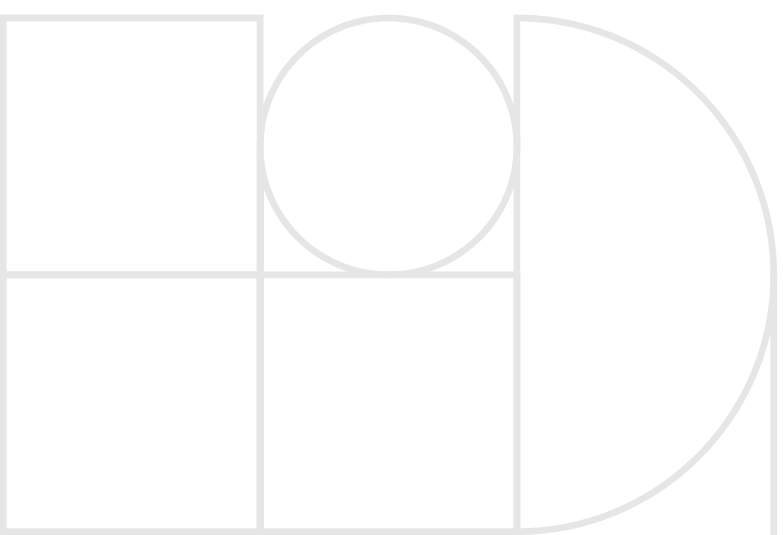

As you know, not every hustling is noisy!
